

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD.
Wedding Bells to Ring—Personal Notes of Interest.

Mrs. Harrison is in New York city to do some shopping before the official season begins here.

Ex-President Cleveland is reported by one of his ex-foreign ministers who rode in a railroad car with him and swapped fish stories with him to be looking splendidly and young.

Mrs. Darrow, wife of the assistant corporation attorney, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. C. Fisher, of Elkhorn, who is now with Mrs. Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses and son have taken possession of a handsome suite of rooms on the top floor of the Normandie that they have fitted up most luxuriously. The view from that altitude is most enchanting.

Miss Mary E. Lonyan of Newport and Mr. Patrick Murray of this city were married yesterday afternoon in St. Matthew's church by Rev. T. J. Kervick. The bride wore a dress of gray cloth and a hat of velvet matching in color. The newly-married pair will reside in the NATIONAL CEMETERIES.

A portion of the road from the Danville national cemetery to Danville has been completed, and proposals will be invited at once for the remainder. Among the national cemetery sites selected, Hillside, which has no permanent means of approach, has as yet been proposed by Congress; the following are the present means of approach that are available:

Address, with particular, INFANT, HILLSDIDE, N. Y. $12,235 for three double sets at Fort Monroe, Va., $52,650 for two brick barracks at Fort Snelling, Minn.

SOLDIERS, LIVING AND DEAD.
Points from the Annual Report of the Quartermaster General.

BARRACKS FOR TROOPS—DRILL HALLS RECOMMENDED—ROADS TO NATIONAL CEMETERIES—EXTRA PAY FOR SOLDIERS WHO WORK, ETC.

The annual report of the quartermaster general of the army to the Secretary of War was made public today. During the past year $192,229.36 has been expended in the construction of barracks, quarters and other necessary buildings, while repairs were made costing $330,400.17. During the year $20,445 was expended at Fort Porter, Buffalo, N. Y., for a double set of company quarters and other structures, $21,764 for two sets of quarters at Fort Wadsworth, N. Y., $12,235 for three double sets at Fort Monroe, Va., $52,650 for two brick barracks at Fort Snelling, Minn.

Dr. Guy F. Whitney, who has hired his house, No. 1303 New Hampshire avenue, for the winter, has taken apartments at the Arno.

Senator and Mrs. Vance, after spending a delightful summer in the mountains of North Carolina, are back to their house on Massachusetts avenue for the winter.

Senator and Mrs. M. C. Butler are in the city.

Miss Annie Louise Powell will be assisted at her afternoon receptions by Mrs. Anna Powers, who is here from Rhode Island. Mrs. Powell is at No. 1513 Rhode Island avenue.

Lieut. W. C. Cowles, commanding the U.S. Dragoons, sailed this morning to carry Lieut. Jno. A. Norris and party as far as Norfolk on their expedition to the West Indies. Lieut. Cowles, who is socially very popular in this city, will return here next week. Mrs. Cowles, who is the south with Mrs. Helen Cowles, sister of Lieut. Cowles and a well-known newspaper writer, is a daughter of Hon. Allen G. Cowles.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Huntington and Miss Jessie Sherrill, their guest, will leave London this week and sail for New York city, expecting to reach this side by the middle of the month. The Prince and Princess Hatzfeldt will remain in Europe visiting the German castles of the prince's ancestors. Mr. Huntington was most solicitous that the marriage be celebrated in New York city, and earnestly desired that the prince come to the country for the purpose.

It is the opinion of the department that he should be retained in service until he has accumulated sufficient pay, unless it shall be made good by deposit.

DISCHARGED SOLDIERS.

The quartermaster general suggests that in case of the discharge of an enlisted man or account of unfitness for the service or by request that he be required to reimburse the cost of his first year's outfit of clothing as a private, $100, that the soldier's pay due prove insufficient he be retained in service until he has accumulated sufficient pay, unless it shall be made good by deposit.

EXTRA PAY FOR SOLDIERS WHO WORK.

It is recommended that a corps of 1,250 enlisted men be authorized for detail in the quartermaster's department with the pay and allowances of enlisted men of the cavalry, with the addition to the pay of clerks, draftsmen, teamsters, mechanics and artisans of $5 a month, and to those engaged in repairing and maintaining horses, $10 a month.
